

A black and white manga cover illustration. Two young men are depicted in a festive setting, possibly a party or a formal dinner. The man on the left has light, spiky hair and is looking towards the viewer with a neutral expression. The man on the right has dark, slicked-back hair and is shown in profile, drinking from a glass with a straw. He has a small fang visible in his mouth. They are both wearing light-colored shirts under dark jackets. The background is filled with streamers and confetti. In the foreground, there are plates of food, including what looks like pizza or a similar dish. The title 'FANGS' is prominently displayed in the center, with a large number '3' below it, indicating it's the third volume. At the bottom, there's a curved banner with the Hungarian title 'A VÁMPÍROK SZÖVETSEGE' and the author's name 'Billy Balibally'. The publisher's logo 'FU MAX MANGA' is in the bottom right corner.
